St Andrew's Parish Church – St Andrew's is a diverse and active church with an electoral roll of about 160. Worship is in a variety of different styles, but mainly uses the more modern of "hip" service formats. They have a strong musical tradition ranging from a robed choir with organ, to a music group and a youth band. There is a bell-ringing team which rings for the main services on Sundays. There is a thriving Sunday school and crèche which meet on Sunday mornings at 10.00 am at the same time as the main Holy Communion Service. On Saturdays, there is a Coffee Shop so that people can drop in for a chat after their weekly visit to the market.

Contact – 01767 312243

St Peter's Catholic Church - The Church is part of The Roman Catholic Diocese of Northampton. You and your family are warmly invited to go and worship there at any of the Sunday or weekday services. From the centre of Biggleswade make your way towards the railway station; after about 150 metres you will see the Police Station followed by St Peter's Catholic Church on your left.

There is space to park behind the church.

Contact – 01767 312013

Trinity Methodist Church - Trinity Methodist Church is a warm and welcoming Christian fellowship, serving the local community because of God's love. It is located in Shortmead Street, a short walk from the Town Centre. Sunday morning worship (10.30am) is traditional 'Free-Church' style in a relaxed atmosphere. A shorter service (usually Holy Communion) is also held earlier on the second Sunday of the month, with more contemporary and informal worship at 6.00pm on the fourth Sunday. 'Thursday Lunch' (first Thursday of month) preceded by a short service and followed by concert. Messy Church is a free fun family session, including a lunch every third Saturday at Trinity Biggleswade.

Contact – 01767 312156

Biggleswade Baptist Church - Another part of the family of Jesus, meeting in our town. The main event is at 10.30am on Sunday Morning, at the London Road base, which is a lively celebration of our Christian faith through singing, (mostly modern worship songs) praying, and exploring the Message of the Bible. For part of the morning the children have their Sunday Club groups. The church offers particular care to the whole town through its food bank project, and Listening Space; and in the summer its Holiday Club for children.

Contact – 01767 312667

Biggleswade Pentecostal Church - Comprises a varied group of people who follow Jesus. Sunday Services are at 5pm, in Crab Lane, and there is also plenty going on during the week to get involved in. As Christians, they believe in the good news as described in the Bible, about God, and His love for every one of us. They also believe that church should be a friendly, loving and happy environment to be in and is meant to be enjoyed! It is not about a building, but a family, and so church should also be relevant to everyone, whatever their age or background, and there will always be something in which to be involved. On Thursday Mornings there is an open invitation to drop in for a cuppa and a chat between 10 and 12.

Contact – 01767 600061

Newlife Church – A growing church that is seeking to serve Biggleswade and the surrounding area. They are seeking to build a community where everyone is welcomed and accepted, where people have fun together, enjoy life together, where those who do not know Jesus discover His love for them, where they serve the wider community and each person finds their purpose in God. The Church have regular 'life' groups meeting throughout the week in the evenings and some daytime groups. They are part of the Newfrontiers group of Churches whom are well known for their teaching on God's grace and love for the word of God as well as their love for the Holy Spirit. Sunday celebrations take place at Edward Peake Middle School in Potton Road Biggleswade at 10:30am
